epilogue

nineteen seventy littleton high school . . .

Prologue

the progression of a year so like
the progression of a book:

class by class
chapter by chapter

the characters appear and move in both conflict
and comedy
the events
tumbling
in a loosely woven plot

And in the passing
So very much like
The progression
of a book.

"Cheer up. Things could be worse.
You could have my job."

Dear Graduates:

As you come to the end of your high school education and go forth into a competitive world, may you look back on your experiences with us as a period when you developed maturity and understanding.

It was a "real" pleasure to have you with us and I extend to all of you my best wishes for success and happiness in the years ahead.

Undefeated.

Undefeated!

The Tiger hockey teams, both J.V. and Varsity, finished their seasons with great records. Our Varsity, for the first time ever, won the Wachusett League title. The dream of winning a championship became a reality. Through the unselfish efforts of our coaches, our team held an undefeated position throughout the season. Mr. Silva, our head coach, and Mrs. McManus, our assistant coach gave us the desire and ambition to be champions. They gave us the training and spirit to dream the impossible dream. We are proud to say our Tigers are NUMBER ONE!

Epilogue . . .

the closing of a year
    so like
the closing of a book:

class by class
chapter by chapter

the characters have gone through their paces
    in both conflict
    and comedy
the events
    tumbling
    in a loosely woven plot

And in the end
So very much like
The closing of a book.
